Re: Arkansas Fourth Congressional District Democratic nominee Gene Jeffress and Gene Jeffress for Congress Committee - Violation of Federal Election Commission Law And/Or Commission Regulations

Dear Counselor:

Please consider this letter a formal complaint filed against Arkansas' Fourth Congressional District Democratic nominee Gene Jeffress and the Gene Jeffress for Congress Committee.

The Gene Jeffress for Congress campaign has violated federal law regarding proper disclosure usage over which the FEC (Federal Election Commission) has jurisdiction.

According to the FEC website, a disclaimer notice is defined as a "statement placed on a public communication that identifies the person(s) who paid for the communication and, where applicable, the person(s) who authorized the communication."

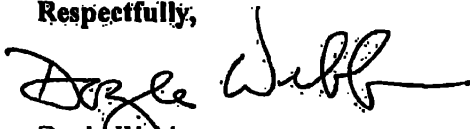

The Gene Jeffress for Congress campaign has failed to provide proper federal disclaimers as required by the FEC on campaign materials which have been widely distributed to the public.

Examples are as follows:

- Failure to provide proper federal disclaimer on campaign push card (See Appendix A).
- Failure to provide proper federal disclaimer on campaign yard sign (See Appendix B).
- Failure to provide proper federal disclaimer on campaign fan (See Appendix C).

If supplemental information or documentation is required, please let me know.

Respectfully,

Doyle Webb
Chairman
